Borden Admits That Tribunal System Has Proved To Be Failure

Tells Parliament That Proposed Amendments to Military Service Act Only Way to Raise Reinforcements Necessary—Sir Wilfrid Laurier Objects to Order-in-Council as Unnecessary—Order-in-Council Passes House by Vote of 114 to 65—No Division in Senate.

OTTAWA, April 19.—In both houses today night the resolutions were passed authorizing the government to make further call on the manpower of the country for service in the army. The senate adopted it without division. In the house, it was passed after a debate lasting through the afternoon and well into the evening, and after the defeat of the two opposition amendments. They were the first divisions of the session.

The first division came on an amendment by Dr. Molloy, resolution, seconded by Captain Read, Prince Rupert, B.C., proposed order-in-council to amend the words "this house regrets that the proposed order-in-council, December 1917, allowing the exemption of those persons who are actually engaged in promoting agriculture production, and the home therefore declare that the proposed order-in-council shall be amended so that it shall be the exemption of those who are actually engaged in the production of foodstuffs on the farms of Canada." The amendment was defeated on the following division: For 114, against 65.

Majority against 48. Dr. Molloy then moved to vote on the amendment, requested that his vote be withheld, as he had been paid. The speaker announced that a vote was being taken on the amendment. The result of the vote was as follows: For 114, against 65.

In the senate, the resolution was moved by Sir James Lusk, and seconded by Sir James Lusk. The speaker announced that a vote was being taken on the amendment. The result of the vote was as follows: For 114, against 65.

The Premier's Statement. The Premier's statement was as follows: "The government has decided to make further call on the manpower of the country for service in the army. The senate adopted it without division. In the house, it was passed after a debate lasting through the afternoon and well into the evening, and after the defeat of the two opposition amendments. They were the first divisions of the session."

There has come what appears to be a full in the war situation. Official reports tell of actual conditions. They say that the situation is such that the government is forced to make further call on the manpower of the country for service in the army. The senate adopted it without division. In the house, it was passed after a debate lasting through the afternoon and well into the evening, and after the defeat of the two opposition amendments. They were the first divisions of the session.

Correspondents at the front tell of the situation. They say that the situation is such that the government is forced to make further call on the manpower of the country for service in the army. The senate adopted it without division. In the house, it was passed after a debate lasting through the afternoon and well into the evening, and after the defeat of the two opposition amendments. They were the first divisions of the session.

The French blow aimed at the very heart of the German position. In front of Amiens, has not been forgotten. The government is forced to make further call on the manpower of the country for service in the army. The senate adopted it without division. In the house, it was passed after a debate lasting through the afternoon and well into the evening, and after the defeat of the two opposition amendments. They were the first divisions of the session.

The southern end of the battlefront in France has shifted in the quiet that has followed the great offensive. The government is forced to make further call on the manpower of the country for service in the army. The senate adopted it without division. In the house, it was passed after a debate lasting through the afternoon and well into the evening, and after the defeat of the two opposition amendments. They were the first divisions of the session.

CANADIANS IN SECTOR OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

Vimy Ridge Position is of the Greatest Strategic Value

KEY OF THE POSITION

Ten German Divisions Try Vainly to Turn Its Northern Flank

WINNIPEG, April 19.—A Canadian source returned here from the front, where he has been almost continuously since the winter of 1917, pointed out to the Canadian Press that while the Canadian position at Vimy Ridge is of the greatest strategic importance, it is also the key of the position. UNMARRIED MEN AND WIDOWERS FROM 20 TO 22 WILL BE CALLED TO THE COLORS AT ONCE

OTTAWA, April 19.—The passing of the military manpower resolution by parliament will be followed by the calling to the colors of the unmarried men and widowers from 20 to 22 years old, both inclusive and who have been granted exemption.

All exemptions in these cases will be cancelled. As the men to be called were included in Class 1 required to report for service or claim exemption by the proclamation issued last October, no further proclamation will be necessary. The course followed will probably be the same as was adopted when category (b) men were called up—each man will be notified by the district registrar, when and where he is to report for duty.

WILL PRESENT TO WORLD STATEMENT ON IRELAND'S CASE

DUBLIN, April 19.—After a prolonged conference today at the Mansion House, representatives of the Nationalists, Sinn Féiners, O'Brienites and Laborites decided to prepare for presentation to the world a detailed statement of Ireland's case against the compulsory military service imposed by the British government.

The lord mayor of Dublin has been asked to go to Washington and present the statement personally to President Wilson.

Nothing Like Coming Down to SEE THE NEW MILLINERY Supposing You Are Not Ready to Buy

Much might be written about the lovely new Spring and Summer hats that are continually arriving and replenishing our assortment. But the most descriptions of what's to be seen would fall short of doing them justice. There's nothing like coming right down to see them, supposing you are not ready to buy.

Though the slender models of spring further the popularity of small hat styles, more wider brim shapes are now arriving. It would be folly to have a small hat if a large one were more becoming. Nevertheless, our staff find our displays amply varied enough to your particular fancy.

Among the new arrivals are: Trimmed and untrimmed shapes. From New York that may be briefly described by two words—"CHIC" and "SMALL". There are smart, short back brim shapes, spirited upturned, Victorian styles, and many drooping brims of various widths.

Prices $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00 and up.

The trimmings consist of exquisite light flat flowers in the most spring-like colors—tinted, sky blue and various shades, vivid ribbon bands or wired bows, etc.

Saturday--Children's Day in the Millinery Section

Trim and proud little Misses of 6 to 12 years will be in great glee Saturday as she struts about trying the new hats. WHAT PRESS
AGENTS SAYBLAINE OPENS ENGAGEMENT
AT HIPPODROME MONDAY
WITH "A PAIR OF SIXES"Brilliant Star is Supported by a Good All-round Company That Should Present a Good Line of Attractions and Be Favorably Received.

On Monday night next, presenting "A Pair of Sixes," Edmonton's new permanent stock company, under the direction of James Blaine, opens its engagement in the Hippodrome theatre, and with the cast surrounding Mr. Blaine, the company should be favorably received and have a successful engagement. The following are short sketches of the members:

Miss Edna May is from Illinois, where she has been playing for the past three years with the D. J. Woodward company at the theatre. Miss May has a charming personality and is a host of friends behind her. She naturally has a desire to see the prairie country, and when the opportunity offered to be in congenial surroundings she accepted Mr. Blaine's offer to come to the Hippodrome. She has appeared in more than 200 different plays, having also been featured in several big productions. She has made a thorough study of dramatics and is well suited to play opposite to Mr. Blaine.

Jack Milton has been selected to play the juvenile parts. He created the lead in "My Mother's Boy" three years ago and since then has devoted his time to stock. He has appeared with the permanent players for the past 40 weeks and will give a fine performance in each and every part. He was also with the Edna May company when they were in New York.

Miss Tilla Elliott not only has youth and personality, but also of ability to play the juvenile parts. She is an experienced actress, having been associated with some of the best actors in the past and present. She is a woman who will win a host of friends for her wit and the honor.

Miss Margaret Marion, portraying all characters, is a coast character, she is probably well known to some of the people of Edmonton, having been connected with a number of shows that have come through this city from western producing centres.

Mr. Allen Strickland is an experienced actor who has been with Mr. Blaine in all his western engagements of the past three years. He is versatile to the last letter of the word, and critics have declared that he can take a juvenile or a general business part with equal acceptability.

Mrs. Kathleen Taylor is a petite little girl of femininity, looking only with vim, vigor and vitality, whose winning ways will always enhance her natural stage ability.

Mr. Donald Gray needs no introduction to Edmonton, having been a prominent member of the company that played so many months to big business in the old Lyceum theatre, which was burned to the ground on the night of December 7, 1914. His work is sincere and finished at all times. He is a student of the profession.

These, along with James Blaine, who has been connected with his own company for the past three years in Canada and the United States, also starring from coast to coast in "The Earl and the Girl," "Within the Law" and a number of other New York successes, will make up the company of permanent players.

With each and every one of the bills presented by the permanent players, the scenic productions will be built up to the highest standard. The company has had a long and profitable experience in this line of theatrical productions.

The bills are given twice weekly, on Mondays and Thursdays, while popular music will be seen on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday of each week.

Edmonton's new permanent players, under the direction of Mr. H. O. Turner, will enjoy the audience before and behind the acts.

Miss Kathleen Taylor, who is with James Blaine and his Permanent Players, at the Hippodrome theatre, starting Monday.

COMEDY, PATHOS
MINGLE IN NEW
PICKFORD FILM"Amorality of Clothes Line Alley"
Leans More to Comedy
Than Ordinarily

Comedy holds full sway in "Amorality of Clothes Line Alley," the next great picture from the studio of Pickford, and which will be exhibited at the Monarch the week of April 25. While in every picture presenting Miss Pickford there is a comedy or a serious story, in this picture the comedy and the serious are so well blended as to make a picture of rare quality as well as an act that is capable of being a great success. It is said that there has never before been a picture of this kind wherein humor predominated to such an extent as in this story of the slum.

There are many moments of genuine pathos and any number of thrills in the course of the picture, but laughter will hold sway, overcoming everything and leading to a happy conclusion. The story "Our Mary," which is the basis of the picture, is a convincing figure of a girl, later in the picture, she is shown in the hands of a man, who is a scoundrel, but returns to her in the end, and she is shown where she finds happiness.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN
LOST A BET AND HOW HE PAID IT

A peculiar wager was settled at the Charlie Chaplin studio this week and which John Jasper, general manager, was declared the winner over the million dollar comedian, the latter settling the matter in his own way. Jasper considers himself both in and out of the transaction.

"They'll have to move some of those trees on Delongue's avenue back a few feet," said Charlie, while respecting the plan for his half million dollar motion picture plan in Hollywood.

"I don't think so," responded Jasper. "Absolutely," spoke up Charlie, "for if they don't, we won't be able to put up the style of fence included in these plans."

"I think that you are wrong," laughed the manager. "Because I happened to be present when the survey was made and the trees are three feet clear at the base."

"Well, I'll bet you a hat I'm right," said Chaplin, and Jasper quickly acceded.

The following day the first step in erecting the fence were taken and as Jasper and Chaplin watched the progress of the work, they noticed half a dozen men cutting branches from the trees.

"You see, I was right," yelled the comedian. "They are moving the trees. You owe me a hat."

"Oh, no, I don't," replied the manager. "The trees are still in the ground and they are merely cutting some of the longer branches."

That afternoon Charlie appeared at the studio with a large hat box in his hand. With much ceremony he presented it to Jasper, but when the latter opened the box, his eyes were drawn down upon half a derby.

"What's the idea," shouted Jasper. "You don't expect me to wear this, do you?"

"No, but I don't think you were all right and I want all wrong, it's fifty-fifty, so you win half a hat," grinned Charlie.

So the hat was settled.

THEIR AS A CAMOUFLAGE
Theatre writers have made the discovery that the European war has fallen down lately when it comes to laying claim to "camouflage" in anything new and points to the Bard of Avon and the original camouflager. Shakespeare built the climax of his great tragedy, "Macbeth," in a camouflage when he placed in the mouth of the witch the words:

"Macbeth shall never vanquished
Great Birnam wood to high Dunsinane hill
Shall come against him."

And it is all the same to Macbeth, leading the English and Scotch host against him, when he sees that the Birnam wood is made up of unlikable camouflaging.

Just every soldier new him down
"A loath!"

"And bear! before him! thereby
Shall we shadow
The numbers of our host, and
Make discovery."

It is report of us
The two quotations above seem to settle any argument.

Sessue Hayakawa, the Japanese mauler, who has played Chicago, has now been in a Broadway picture house, where he will direct (as a director) a picture called "The Fighting Trail," which is a very pretty picture. Hayakawa is also prominent in the company.

Marshall Neilan, who has just completed the direction of "Mary Pickford in 'Miles for Millions,' is now in the city where he will direct (as a director) a picture called "The Fighting Trail," which is a very pretty picture. Hayakawa is also prominent in the company.

Week's News of the World's Events In Picture Form

MACHINE THAT WON TESTIMONIAL FROM ENEMY

The new British fighting triplane in action. It was recently described as "excellent" in a report by Gen. von Hoepfner, chief of the German flying corps.

WEDDING OF LORD STRATHCONA'S GRANDDAUGHTER

The Hon. Edith Howard, daughter of Dr. R. J. Bliss Howard and Lady Strathcona and Mount Royal, and Lieut. Lord Conington, R.N., whose marriage took place recently in London, England.

MONTREAL FIREMEN KNITTING SOCKS FOR BRITISH SAILORS

Most Rev. Cosmo Lang, D.D., Archbishop of York, who has come to Canada in connection with patriotic work. He delivered three addresses in Montreal this week.

Above is shown a group of Montreal women initiating the firemen into the mysteries of knitting. Below are two men of the brigade examining closely a knitting machine. The men find the work entertaining, as when not fighting fires. Time hangs heavy. The men already turn out 125 pairs weekly.

A Soldier's Grave

Lieut. Rooke, who was killed in the taking of Vimy Ridge, went overseas first with the 14th battalion, and later returned with Gen. Meighen to be battalion sergeant-major of the 87th guards. He returned to the front and was awarded his commission. His parents live in Montreal.

Celebrated Canadian Prize Fighter In Khaki

Frankie Flemming in his new uniform as a member of the flying corps. Joe Buras wants a chance to beat him.

Major George McNamara

Well-known professional Canadian hockey player promoted at the front. He played with his brother Howard for Canadians, and soldiers' team of Toronto.

J. D. Rockefeller, Jr.

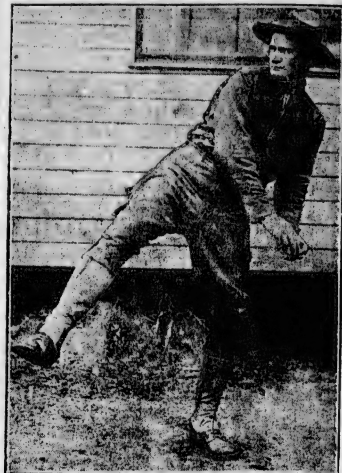

Who addressed the Montreal Canadian club Friday on "Brotherhood Among Men and Nations."

From Newsboy To Railway President

W. P. Kenney, who has just been chosen president of the Great Northern, succeeding Louis W. Hill.

BASEBALL STARS NOW BATTLING FOR UNCLE SAM

When the military camps start their baseball season Camp Gordon, Ga., will be represented by one of the best batteries in the country, including Sherrill Smith, crack southpaw of the Dodgers, who is among the boys in training in the southern camp. He recently joined Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

HEAVY GUN ON NEW FRENCH TANK NOW USED TO STAY ASSAULT OF GERMANS

This new tank was completed by the French in time to take into the battle now raging on the Somme, and for fifty miles up and down the British lines. Its chief feature is the new heavy gun, heavier than anything heretofore built on a tank. The arrow on the picture points to the gun. At the sides there are the usual machine guns, which have been used on tanks before.

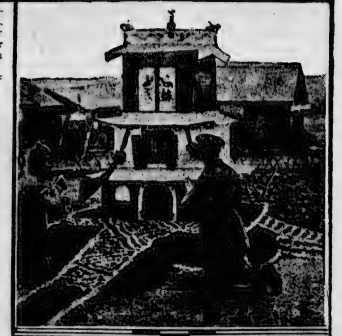

THE RIGHT TO LIVE EACH HIS OWN LIFE UNDER THE UNION JACK

The photos show Chinese-British troops on the western front. Above they are dancing. Below they worship their God in their own way, protected by British guns.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, whose election is a victory over LaFollette's pro-Germanism.

Children's Agricultural Contests Popular

CHILDREN'S CONTESTS FEATURE NEXT VEGEVILLE EXHIBITION; PRACTICAL TEST OF TEACHING

Will Have Far-reaching Effect in Agricultural Development of Extensive Territory Tributary to That Progressive Town—Animal Exhibition Will Have Distinct Educational Value—Bankers and Business Men Co-operate in Program of Progress.

The following extract from the Vegerville Observer shows what valuable work the Vegerville Agricultural Society is doing in a most practical way to assist in the agricultural education of the young folks of the extensive territory tributary to that progressive town. The program must be suggestive of the fact that the Vegerville Agricultural Society is doing a most practical work in the good work of cooperation with the school system in the production of better crops and better stock. The list of school prizes for the time for production of school prizes is as follows: Within the next six weeks a much more extensive program will be held in the school department of the exhibition. It is up to the teachers to eliminate this interest among the children has a distinct educational value. The following is the prize list for the school exhibit of the Vegerville exhibition:

This serviceable coop can be easily constructed. It is portable, very comfortable and has been found quite satisfactory. The slat door is raised to keep the hen and when it is desired to keep the chicks inside on account of the weather the long door is dropped. Light enters through the upper window, and the coop has a wire screen ventilator at the rear under the eaves. When open, the long door drops as a roof for the veranda and keeps the hen and chick up off the damp ground.

ROAD MAKING EASY BY USE OF SPLIT LOG TO KILLAM

Cheap Serviceable Implement Makes Rural Road Like City Street

(Experimental Farm Note) Many miles of roads must be maintained by some means, more or less expensive. On the Dominion Experimental Farms, and in many other parts of Canada, the Split-Log Drag of the Killam Road Locomotive Co. is used for this purpose. It is a simple machine, made of split logs, and is used for the purpose of making a road like a city street. BONDED ITALIAN HONEY BEE

BEST FOR ALBERTA BECAUSE LONG TONGUE REACHES NECTAR

T. Dwyon, of Bashaw, Has Had Four Years' Successful Experience With Keeping of Bees, Which He Predicts Will Become One of Most Profitable Industries of Alberta—Teaches Neighbors the Art of Handling Honey Bees.

Hashaw Star: Mr. T. Dwyon is a practical bee man of 25 years' experience and has taught many the art of handling and caring for the money bee, while he has successfully raised bees in the Hashaw district for the past four years, and states that there is no reason why the money bee should not become a most profitable industry in this part of the province.

Mr. Dwyon commenced experimening about four years ago with a colony of black or wild bees. He next used the hybrid, but finally gave them up for the Italian honey bee, which claims this to be the best for this climate.

It is longer than the other bees, and it can reach further into the petals of flowers to gather the nectar, while it is a much harder bee, and can stand the winter better than a foreigner, and it is in handling.

Mr. Dwyon states that the period of gathering honey runs from early April until late September or October, and not until the first frost, which would prevent the bees from gathering.

Mr. Hammett is another man in this district who was taught the art by Mr. Dwyon, and who has been successfully conducting a bee industry for the past three years.

Little Stories For Bedtime

[illegible]

"I am still hungry," the mouse girl," was the answer, "and the trouble is that my tail is caught between two stones and I can't get it loose. Oh, dear!"

was the answer, "And the trouble with the puzzle was that I didn't know you and I can't get it loose. Oh, yes."

"Don't cry. I'll help you," said kind Uncle Wiggily as he lifted the stone the mouse girl told so he was all right.

"What was so kind of you?" squeaked "Some day I hope I run to you a favor, and you, also, Mr. Squeak," she said.

"Oh, ho! There's a pretty good joke!" burst the big animal. "The idea of my little mouse doing a big elegant like me a favor?"

"Stranger things have happened," said Uncle Wiggily, as he and the mouse went on through the woods. The little longtail, after having rabbit and elephant, scurried to and fro.

It was not long after this that all the sudden the elephant was jumping along near Uncle Wiggily, his animal nostrils quivering. "The mouse leaves and sticks that were of the mouth of a cow," said the hunters had a cat. And the elephant was crushed through it and was so crushed so close that he could not escape it until it was too late. "Oh dear!" cried the elephant. "I'm all dead!"

"I'll help you," said Uncle Wiggily. "I need to go to a doctor and get cured."

And just as Uncle Wiggily was trying to help the elephant out of pit—though really the hunter did know how he was going to do it—Longtail felt something grab him from the hind leg, and there he was left in a drible trap, and he could not escape.

Uncle Wiggily squatted and twisted to try to turn around to bite the mouse, but he could not do it. He could not get up. "I thought the elephant was down in the pit," I thought you were coming to go out, and I was," spoke the bunny, "but I caught in a trap myself, now, and can't help you."

"Oh, dear!" cried the elephant as he looked at the mouse. "This is terrible! Will one not help me?"

"Will one help me?" said the mouse. "Will one help me?" said the mouse. "Will one help me?" said the mouse.

"You'll know," said the big animal.

Letters to Uncle Tom

THE BEST STORY
The following little story by Winnie Woodcock, of Boyne Lake, is the best we have seen in this week. It is a story of a boy who is a little bit of a trouble maker, but who is a good boy at heart. It is a story of a boy who is a little bit of a trouble maker, but who is a good boy at heart. It is a story of a boy who is a little bit of a trouble maker, but who is a good boy at heart.

Children Had Whooping Cough

Whooping cough, although especially a disease of children, is not confined to that period, but may occur at any time of the year. It is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and is especially dangerous in the winter season, when it is often accompanied by other diseases, such as measles, scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria. It is a disease which is very contagious, and is often spread by children who are in the house with the patient. It is a disease which is very contagious, and is often spread by children who are in the house with the patient.
